of confusion have been corrected 12/14/16. If you don't like great words too much, here's the best alternative - Soul Saber. You can get it as a reward for one of Randolph's quests, The Cursed Legend. You can find Randolph at the farmers market in Lestallum. The Cursed Legend mission involves killing a beast named Falaris. This is level 85 enemy, so prepare yourself for a devastating battle. Great words and fiery spells work perfectly against him. In order to get the final sword in Final Fantasy XV, Ultima Blade, you need to complete several quests and one specific hunt. Here's a complete guide to how to get this exceptional weapon. Three quests require Noctis to upgrade his Engine Blade sword, and then you need to hunt duplicates and Spiracons to get Sturdy Helixhorn. The most powerful weapon in the game is an easy find... Well, almost. You need to get to the Balouve mines and find a locked vault door. This is one of many such doors that can be found in the dungeons of Final Fantasy XV. Once you have the key, you will be able to walk through the doors and pick up the great sword of the Apocalypse. It's a great alternative to the Apocalypse and Dominica's great-words. You can get an iron duke as a reward for beating Benuu - a huge bird boss. In order to activate this fight you need to start a side quest called Legend is Born. Talk to Randolph in Lestallum to snatch the mission and the sword. You can get the best daggers in Final Fantasy XV, perform the latest side quest given by Randolph in Lestallum - Wonderful Weapon. However, this is not an easy task, as you will face an extremely dangerous enemy called Nagflar. It uses strong dark elementary attacks and has a huge health pool, so you have to be at least level 80 to be able to defeat it. Have a pair of Robber's daggers in the game. The first is easy to get by trading 4 Caem Carrots with Tony in Cape Jam. Then, you can upgrade them to much better robbers by doing a Cid search. Looks like it's You have to bring him a barbed braid that can only be obtained from a Wasp soldier in Malmalam Thicket. Once you have an item, return it to Sid and upgrade the daggers. This ultimate magnum gun can be located in the secret area of Baluve Mains - the same place where you found the great word Apocalypse. But in order to get the death penalty you have to kill the boss of the dungeon, the Pyromanth. The coolest thing about this firearm is that it has a tiny chance to kill the enemy. But even without this ability, the death penalty inflicts incredible amounts of damage on its own. This incredibly powerful gun appears after you kill boss Lahma Flan in Keycatrich. Lahmu is a very strong demon, which has almost no weaknesses and is resistant to insta-murders. You have to be very careful here as the boss constantly throws a lot of fire, lightning and ice spells. When you do with it, the Hyper Magnum will be available for collection. Flayer is a powerful spear weapon that can be obtained after cleaning each floor of the steyffil Grove location. You must also have a key previously obtained from Ezma to be able to unlock the storage door. The ultimate boss - Mictantechauit - is weak for daggers and ice spells. Also, if you have any other polearms in the cache, then they will be just as effective against this beast. You may have already found the original Auto crossbow in keycatrich, but this iteration is not very strong. However, you can update it, bringing Sid Cactuar needles. It's a very rare object that can only be narrowed down by killing as a toir that appears in the morning in the northwest of Hammerhead. Once you bring Sid Cactuar needles, you will be rewarded with a better auto crossbow, which is not only powerful but also provides you with a huge resistance damage bonus. By default, the gravitational well version can be located inside the office in the Aracheole Stronghold hangar. You can bring it to Sid's garage at Hammerhead and he will be able to upgrade it to the best gravity well. All you need is to find a hydraulic cylinder that spawns in a place shown north of Fort Vaullerey (see video below). Better Gravity Well is an excellent weapon if you want to increase your magical abilities. The original circular saw falls after you kill Loki at the prairie outpost. Later you can update it with Sky Gemstone - a peculiar item that can be snatched by performing a feline holiday quest at Cape Caem. The Patio Dungeon, or at the beginning of Chapter 12, Noctis needs to feed Monica, Cat, and as a reward he will get the necessary item for this Circular Saw update. You will surely enjoy this weapon, which will greatly increase your vitality. At the beginning of Chapter 12, as soon as you get off the train at Tenebrae, you will eventually have to talk to Maria. Next to it you can find the sky gem. You can also 2 Sky Gemstones in Patioss dungeon, but it requires you to update Fly. You can also enter only at night. You will find this huge sword after defeating Jabberwock - level 58 dragon located in the Tower of Costlemark. However, the journey to the Great Word of the High must begin with the search for Viv, the Gods, and the Kings. You will be given the task to take photos of the Tomb of the High, located in Falgroe. There you will find a note that will lead you to the actual location of the sword. This massive halberd can be obtained after the assassination of boss Arachne and the entrance to the Royal Tomb of the Conqueror. The tomb itself is located in the Keycatrich Vpad. Arachna is quite easy to kill with any sword and fiery spells. The Conqueror's axe gives Noctis extra strength when equipped, and is rightly considered one of the most powerful royal arms in Final Fantasy XV. At the end of Chapter 12 you will fight a daemon boss called Deathclaw. This fight is part of the Breath of Glacian quest that provides you with an amazingly beautiful Oracle Trident trident. You get it from Ghana after the murder of Ddenyslav, who is mostly vulnerable to fiery spells. Also, beware of its massive aerial attacks, but other than that it shouldn't be too complicated. What other great weapon did we miss from Final Fantasy XV? Let us know in the comments below. The best weapon in the FFXV manual shows all the ultimate weapons purchased at the end of the game. End of the weapon game give a significant boost in attacking damage, but some lack additional statistics. This is why Armiger weapons (royal weapons) are the perfect choice for stats boosts. Perhaps the best combination of basic weapons for full capacity is the presence of three weapons and conventional weapons. Armiger Armiger weapons are the weapons of the previous kings. Many of them can be obtained through the main story, but some of them you may miss. The best things about Armiger weapons are their stats boosts. They can increase resistance to various types of damage, untreated physical damage and more. To get the stats Armiger raises, they only need to be shelled. The downside of Armiger's weapons is that they can only be used by Noctis (because they are royal hands) and they also deplete his health bar when he attacks.
